

Re-Elect

Mildred C.
CRUMP

for Councilwoman At-Large

Mildred C. Crump

Trailblazer with many "Firsts"

Mildred C. Crump is a long time community activist. She has been a consummate and consistent advocate for women, children, senior citizens, the disabled, working families and those in need. Serving her community well, she has been active for years with numerous organizations (Integrity House, Bridge to Recovery, Boys and Girls Club of Newark, Independence: A Family of Services, Habitat for Humanity, Newark Branch NAACP and active member of Bethany Baptist Church, Newark, NJ, to name a few).

- Newark's first African-American Councilwoman (July 1, 1994)
- First female president of the Newark Municipal Council, (July 1, 2006)
- First woman from Newark elected to the National Board of Directors for Women in Municipal Government (WIMG)
- First African-American woman selected as "Garden State Woman of the Year, 2007"
- First African-American Braille teacher in New Jersey

A Role Model for Women

Councilwoman Crump promotes the empowerment and development of women through her activities with the New Jersey Coalition of 100 Black Women, National Political Congress for Black Women of Newark, Global Women's Leadership Collaborative of New Jersey, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and especially through the Newark Women's Conference, Inc., which she founded. More than 6,000 women of all ages, social and ethnic backgrounds have participated in the conference. She has been recognized many times for her work:

- International Who's Who of Women of Prominence
- Who's Who of University Women
- Essex County Woman of the Year, 1995
- ONI Award from the International Congress of Black Women, 1995
- 100 Most Influential Citizens in New Jersey, 1996
- New Jersey Woman of the Year for World Peace, 1997
- Beatrice Warrington Lifetime Service Award from the NJ Minorities with Disabilities Coalition, 2004

After having retired in 2003 with 42 years of service as a Braille Teacher and Education Consultant from the New Jersey Commission for the Blind and Visually Impaired, Ms. Crump has dedicated her life to serving her community and continues to leave her stamp everywhere she goes.